Précis of 100 Words or Less:	This Manual prepared by Transparency Azerbaijan, a national chapter of Transparency International, with financial support from DFID – British Embassy. This Manual is devoted to research of the problem of corruption in Azerbaijan - one of the most poignant problems of our country. Many countries of the world and, in the first place, countries in transition where democracy and rule of law have not been fully established, suffer from corruption, which impedes their economic development, forces population to suffer and intensifies social inequality. Authors recommend urgent measures to be taken by all sectors of the society to seriously curb corruption in Azerbaijan.
