

Name of Researcher:	Beare, Margaret E.
Citizenship of Researcher:	Canada
Telephone Number of Researcher:	416-736-5907
E-mail Address of Researcher:	mbeare@yorku.ca
Employer or Sponsoring Organization:	Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto York University
Address of Employer or Sponsoring Organization:	York University Osgoode Hall Law School 4700 Keele Street Toronto, ONT M3J 1P3 Canada
Title of Project:	The Business of Bribery: Globalization, Economic Liberalization, and the 'Problem' of Corruption
Type of Product (e.g., Book, Paper, Documentary Film, Serial Article):	A Chapter of a Book
Précis of 100 Words or Less:	Anti-corruption strategies must be understood within the context of global relations and the efforts made by particular nations to govern the world economy in the interest of promoting specific national economic and political objectives. Specifically, there is a growing need for criminology to come to terms with globalization as a new conceptual and empirical space that is being used to promote and legitimate a fundamental rethinking of the social order on a global scale. The problematization of corruption is significant to the extent that it provides a critical perspective on globalization , and thus a point may begin to assess the nature and significance of globalization's new space.
Start Date:
Projected Completion Date:
Presentation or Publication Date:	2003
Presentation or Publication Venue:	University of Toronto
Original Language:	English
Projected Date of Availability in English:

Relation to Other Efforts, Follow-on Projects (If Any):
Available in Hardcopy or Electronically (Y/N):	Yes