Title of Project:	China Governance Project
Type of Product (e.g., Book, Paper, Documentary Film, Serial Article):	Issues papers, publication on governance in China, series of policy dialogues with policy-makers in China
Précis of 100 Words or Less:	The purpose of this governance project is to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i) encourage Chinese policy-makers to address critical governance challenges that may affect China's economic and social development and impact indirectly on member countries;</li> <li>ii) provide support and advice, rooted in the practical experience of OECD member countries practitioners and adapted to the local context; and finally</li> <li>iii) provide an overall picture to member countries of these critical governance challenges in China.</li> </ul> The governance project addresses both whole-of-government and sectoral governance issues. The whole-of-government issues refer to those horizontal aspects of governance that are common across the government. This includes budgeting, civil service, integrity (anti-corruption), regulatory management and organisational structures. The sectoral issues refer to the organisational or implementation aspects in different specific policy areas.
