

Name of Researcher:	Lyday, Corbin B.
Citizenship of Researcher:	USA
Telephone Number of Researcher:	(202) 712-1711
E-mail Address of Researcher:	clyday@usaid.gov
Employer or Sponsoring Organization:	USAID through World Learning, Inc.
Address of Employer or Sponsoring Organization:	1300 Pennsylvania Ave NW Washington DC 20520
Title of Project:	Analytical Tools and Interventions Around Patronage and Clientelism for USAID Democracy Programs
Type of Product (e.g., Book, Paper, Documentary Film, Serial Article):	Training, accompanying articles and 'toolkit'
Précis of 100 Words or Less:	Many democratic breakthroughs stall due to the ability of clientelist networks to withstand challenges to their political and economic monopolies. Whether political forces for change can utilize interventions that reduce cronyism's ability to limit competition and influence policy choices may ultimately become an important measure of how much progress can be made in the field of anti-corruption. Through on-going research designed to better gauge the impact of patronage and clientelism in such societies, USAID's Democracy Office is working to improve both political and economic interventions which can provide momentum and broaden economic development in stalled democracies.
Start Date:	September 2002
Projected Completion Date:	On-going research
Presentation or Publication Date:	December 2003
Presentation or Publication Venue:	Internal USAID Democracy Officer Training Manual
Original Language:	English
Projected Date of Availability in English:	December 2003

Relation to Other Efforts, Follow-on Projects (If Any):	Reviewing on-going USAID anti-corruption interventions to measure effect on reducing political clientelism
Available in Hardcopy or Electronically (Y/N):	Yes