Title of Project:	The Quality of Government Institutions – A Comparative Approach
Type of Product (e.g., Book, Paper, Documentary Film, Serial Article):	Research project (preliminary report available)
Précis of 100 Words or Less:	The aim of the project is to study the importance of the character of political institutions in a comparative perspective. This concerns the presence of impartial, uncorrupted, competent, predictable authorities, electoral systems, courts, etc. The theoretical aim is to address the problem how such “efficient” institutions can be established. The empirical aim is to create a country specific data set for aggregate as well as micro-level data. The project will collect and evaluate available data and create a dataset that will be made generally accessible
